

Wolsey Orchestra

The Wolsey Orchestra is a non-profit making charity. Founded in 1972 as a chamber orchestra, it is now a full symphony orchestra committed to promoting concerts of the highest musical standards. Professional conductors and soloists work with the orchestra to make it one of the finest amateur orchestras in East Anglia.

If you would like to support the orchestra's work in any way, or become a Friend of Wolsey Orchestra, we would be delighted to hear from you. Please contact:

CONCERT SEASON 2009-10

Leader: Jamie Foreman

Erdem Misirlioglu: Piano
Kerenza Peacock: Violin

Wolsey Orchestra
gratefully acknowledges the financial support from the Performing Rights Society
Foundation in commissioning a short, brand new work from internationally
renowned composer
Stuart MacRae.

The 10th October concert will feature the world premiere of this new work and the opportunity to hear Stuart talk about his new work in a Pre-Concert talk at 6.30 pm.

Our new season highlights two outstanding locally born young soloists. Erdem Misirlioglu, who wowed a packed house with the Rachmaninov Piano Concerto No 1 with the orchestra two years ago, returns to play one of the best loved piano concerti, Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No 1. Erdem was a BBC Young Musician 2008 Concerto Finalist and now studies in London at the Guildhall School of Music & Drama. Kerenza Peacock, leader of the acclaimed Pavao String Quartet, returns home to play Samuel Barber's lyrically expressive Violin Concerto.
